

MB SpA in Japan

MB SpA, producers of crusher buckets, has been operative in Japan since the beginning of March 2010, with a new branch and warehouse to store goods and manage the after-sales service. The company was founded less than ten years ago and, is one of only a handful of Italian companies with a direct presence in the Land of the Rising Sun.

